British Values Statement

At Uppingham C of E Primary School we are responsible for preparing children for life in modern day Britain. We recognise the multi-cultural, multi-faith nature of Britain and ensure that the fundamental British Values are introduced, discussed and lived out through the ethos and work of the school.

Democracy

- We vote for who represents us on School Council.
- We decide which charities we would like to raise money for.
- We help develop school policies including those on behaviour and the aims of the school.
- We have a say in what happens at our school.

Individual Liberty

- We know that everyone has rights and responsibilities.
- We know that we need to work within certain boundaries to make safe choices.
- We understand and exercise our rights and personal freedoms safely.
- We have the freedom to make choices about the level of challenge in some lessons.
- We can make our own choices in school.
- We have the freedom to make choices about joining clubs.

Mutual Respect

- We make all our visitors feel very welcome in our school.
- We treat each other with respect.
- We know that our behaviour affects our rights and the rights of others.
- We work together to help one another.

The Rule of Law

- We understand the consequences of breaking laws and rules.
- We help develop fair rules for our class and school.
- We understand the importance in having laws and know they protect us and influence our behaviour. We understand how law are made in parliament.

Tolerance

- We enjoy learning about different faiths and cultures around the world.
- We promote diversity through celebrations of different faiths and cultures.
- We understand how prejudice can lead to hate and how important it is to overcome prejudice.
- We enjoy learning about places of worship from different faiths.
- Members of different faiths are welcome in our school and are encouraged to share their knowledge with us.
- We know that we are part of a culturally diverse society and have opportunities to experience different cultures.
