

School News – Friday 8th March 2019 – BOOK WEEK

Open Afternoon

It was lovely to see so many of you coming in to school to share a book with your child and their friends. All around the school there was a real buzz as lots of books were read.

CELEBRATE STORIES.
LOVE READING.

Story in a Jar

Thank you for all the amazingly creative entries for our “Story in a Jar” competition. It really is surprising what you can fit in a jam jar!

Book Review

There were many book reviews which have really inspired us to read new books and try different types of books.

Thank you to the Rainbow Writers for all their hard work organising and judging these competitions.

Book Swap

We enjoyed swapping books and finding a new one to take home.

Thank You!

Thank you to everyone for supporting our Book Week. The staff have been so enthusiastic and a special thank you goes to Mrs Adams for all her inspiration and organisation. A real team effort has led to a fantastic book week this year!

Class Favourite Books

Over the past few weeks classes have been working very hard to share their favourite book using green screen technology. Mrs Adams has worked incredibly hard to put together a montage of this which was shared with the school in Collective Worship. The children were amazed with all the different books.

Please visit Class Dojo to watch this amazing film.
