

School News – Friday 6th December 2019

News from the classrooms

Hedgehogs and Badgers had a fantastic time at the Methodist Church this week. The children sang some Christmas Carols and talked about how Advent is when Christians are waiting for the arrival of Jesus on Christmas Day. They also made some very festive angel cards.

Christmas Fair

Thank you for all your contributions for Non Uniform Day, they have now been organised ready for our Christmas Fair tomorrow. Please come along and enjoy a Christmas game or two and support the Friends of the School Fundraising.

Rutland High Sheriff Margaret Miles Visits Forest School

On a beautiful sunny day in November 2019, we were delighted to host The High Sheriff. Fully prepared in wellies and warm clothes Margaret Miles was introduced to the forest school ethos with Uppingham C of E Primary School group. The children made sure our visitor was welcomed and knew how to walk around the fire circle, which trees you can climb, where the swings and dens were and shared their play and creations. by Alex Wilby

Image Exclusive Photography Competition

Thank you to all who entered the competition, you have raised £45 for the school and we will be spending the money on buying some of the "Top100" books. The winning entry was Sasha who has won a £10 book voucher!
